Heinz Brandt, West German trade union journalist whose arrest aroused an international furor, was released yesterday from an East German jail. His release, after serving two years of a 13-year sentence, was announced by the official East German news agency ADN. It gave no reason. Brandt, 54, was sentenced May 10, 1962, for allegedly spying for the West German Social Democratic Party, the West German Intelligence Service and the American Central Intelligence Agency.
